

NEWS RELEASE

Media Contacts

Adam Kincaid

703-255-6361 | Office

Lynne Coan

703-255-6330 | Office

404-786-4005 | Cell

July 11, 2019

Cool down at Vienna's July 19 Chillin' on Church event

The Town of Vienna will host this summer's second Chillin' on Church block party from 6:30-9:30 p.m. Friday, July 19. Chillin' on Church is presented courtesy of Ben and Jerry's.

The event series brings live music, food trucks, and beer and wine sales – not to mention opportunities to chill with friends and neighbors – to Church Street between Dominion and Mill roads. Admission is free.

On July 19, the Town of Vienna welcomes back Mudlark, who will put on a classic rock 'n' roll performance. Blankets and lawn chairs are encouraged, but pets are not. You must be 21 years or older with a valid photo ID to purchase alcoholic beverages.

Guests who to take the Vienna parks and recreation department's survey, available at the event's information tent, will be eligible to receive a gift card from one of the following Church Street businesses: Caffe Amouri, Rita's, and Bards Alley.

The food truck lineup for July 19 includes:

- Ben & Jerry's – ice cream
- Blue City Foods – Indian street food
- Capital Chicken and Waffles
- Capital Snow – shaved ice
- CapMac – gourmet mac and cheese
- Chix N' Stix
- Danibelle's Lebanese Cuisine
- Eastern Star – Mediterranean
- Koba – Asian fusion
- NC Ribs on Wheels – BBQ, ribs, turkey legs, and more
- Red Hook Lobster Pound Food Truck
- Taco One

Please note that food trucks are subject to change.

###