Take a time machine to Vienna in the 1960s

Historic Vienna, Inc.'s Vienna in the '60s time-traveling exhibit opens March 1 with a grand opening celebration from 2-4 pm Sunday, March 8, at the Freeman Store & Museum, 131 Church Street NE.

Welcoming visitors to HVI's newest exhibit is a U-2 pilot suit worn by Lt. Col. Sam Crouse. Other timepieces include iconic toys from the decade such as a GI Joe, Etch A Sketch, and Easy Bake oven. Posters commemorate some of the 1960s' most pivotal films, including 2001: A Space Odyssey and Rosemary's Baby. Other posters and images nod to the issues that rocked the 1960s: Vietnam, the Civil Rights Movement, and segregation/integration.

HVI encourages visitors to add a personal – and local – touch to the exhibit by sharing their story. A message board accompanying the exhibit will feature anecdotes, historical moments, and personal stories about the decade.

In addition to the 1960s look-back, an additional exhibit, The Road to Women's Rights: Where are We Now?, will be on display at the Freeman Store throughout the remainder of this year.

The Freeman Store & Museum is open from 12-4 pm Wednesday-Sunday.
