

Newsline--Reports the News

Vienna Newsline--a special recorded answering service with local government news--is approaching its second year of operation.

By dialing 938-4499 the caller can hear Council news, parks and recreation news, public service announcements concerning Vienna's activities, police news and any other information vital to understanding what your local municipality is doing.

During the weekends prior to Council meetings the items on the agenda are listed, and on Tuesday after the meeting, the Newsline includes highlights of the meeting.

The Newsline will include the results of the May 4 General Election as soon as the results are tabulated.

ABC Hearing Set May 6

The Alcoholic Beverage Control Board will have a public hearing May 6 to consider issuing a beer and wine, off-premises, license to the 7-Eleven Store at Glyndon Street and Tapawingo Road.

The hearing will begin at 2:30 p.m. at the ABC Building, 501 Montgomery Street, Alexandria.

The Town of Vienna plans to oppose issuance of a beer and wine license to the store.

Tax Exemption Deadline of May 1 Proposed

Senior citizens who are residents of the Town of Vienna and who qualify for relief from real estate and automobile tax will be given until May 1 of each year to apply for tax exemptions if Council approves an amendment to extend the annual deadline.

The proposed change would make the Town's tax exemption rules and regulations the same as Fairfax County. The ordinance will be the subject of a public hearing May 17 at Town Hall, beginning at 8 p.m.

Banner Restrictions Waived

The Town's restriction against pennants, banners and streamers will be waived during certain holiday periods this year.

Businesses may use the decorations as long as they are recognized and identified as being patriotic decorations and not incorporating any advertising, between June 12 and July 16 to celebrate Flag Day, Independence Day and Bastille Day, and October 23 to 30 for Veteran's Day Week.

General Election for New Mayor, Council May 4

The Town's voters will elect a new Mayor and three new Councilmen in the upcoming May 4 General Election at the Vienna Community Center.

Polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. All four of Vienna's voting precincts will be located at the Vienna Community Center, 120 Cherry Street SE. The Community Center is behind the Vienna Volunteer Fire Department.

The election is unique in that no incumbents are running for reelection. Winners will take office July 1 and serve two-year terms.

Two men, Paul M. Lyons and Charles A. Robinson Jr., are running for the Mayor's seat. The office is being vacated by Joseph R. Spriggs. Both Lyons and Robinson are presently serving the Town as Councilmen.

Six residents are running for three Town Council seats. Voters will get to cast three ballots among Elliot Ross Buckley, Ruth M. Donovan, Vincent J. Olson, Wanda C. Pellicciotto, Robert W. Robinson and Louis J. Zone.

Councilman Stephen G. McConahey, who earlier announced he was going to seek reelection, has dropped out of the race. His name will not appear on the ballot.

All winners are elected by popular vote. The election is non-partisan.

MAYOR

(Vote for One)

Paul M. Lyons
Charles A. Robinson Jr.

COUNCIL

(Vote for Three)

Elliot Ross Buckley
Ruth M. Donovan
Vincent J. Olson
Wanda C. Pellicciotto

Plenty of parking will be available. The Community Center has three parking lots and the rear parking lot of the Volunteer Fire Department will be available.

Residents coming to vote at the Center after the 7 p.m. deadline will be turned away, however, those who are in line at 7 p.m. will be able to vote.

A large turnout is expected for this year's election.

Results of the election will be available approximately two hours after the election. The results will be on the Vienna Newslines at 938-4499.
