Vienna Theatre Company presents “Death of a Salesman”

Experience one of the greatest plays of the 20th century this spring at the Vienna Community Center! The Vienna Theatre Company’s production of Arthur Miller’s 1949 Pulitzer Prize-winning drama, “Death of a Salesman” opens at 8 p.m. on Friday, April 22.

Miller’s intense family drama features Willie Loman, an aging, travelling salesman who recognizes the emptiness of his life and tries to fix it. After spending his life following the American way, living out his belief in salesmanship as a way of reinventing himself, he realizes the riches and respect he covets have eluded him. At age 63, he searches for the moment his life took a wrong turn, the moment of betrayal that undermined his relationships with his wife and son. Living in a fragile world of elaborate excuses and daydreams, Willie desperately attempts to make sense of himself and a world that once promised so much.

Performances are at 8 p.m. on the following Fridays and Saturdays: April 22-23, 29-30, and May 6-7. Matinee performances will begin at 2 p.m. on Sundays, May 1 and May 8. Tickets are $15. Tickets may be purchased online at www.viennava.gov/webtrac or in person at Vienna Community Center, located at 120 Cherry Street SE, Vienna, VA 22180.
