VPPL 25th Year

Vienna Pigtail-Ponytail League's opening day ceremony, honoring the league's founders on its 25th anniversary, will be held at 6:30 p.m. Saturday, May 11, on Caffi Field (beside the Vienna Community Center).

TV sportscaster Scott Clark will emcee the ceremony. The Kena 500 cars, bands, clowns and balloons will also be part of the celebration.

VPPL was founded in 1960 by Vienna residents Burley Coulter, Dean Wallace, Ruth Tudor, Lillian Lingfelter, Blake Turner, Fred Crabtree, Shirley Martin, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Demory. It was the first girls softball league formed in Northern Virginia.

About 650 girls aged 7 through 18 now participate, gaining self-confidence, coordination, good sportsmanship and lasting friendships. For information about VPPL, contact Harry Bates at 281-3227.

Art Exhibition at Town Hall

Vienna Arts Society member Norma Anderson will display her watercolors, prints and mixed media works at Town Hall May 30 through June 15.

Town Hall will be closed Monday, May 27, for Memorial Day. There will be no trash pickup that day.

Spring Cleanup Still in Progress

The Town's Spring Cleanup will continue this month, beginning May 7 in Southwest Vienna and May 22 in the Northwest section. Cleanup items may not be placed at the curbside more than seven days prior to the starting date for each quadrant.

Public Works crews will pick up free of charge old furniture, appliances and household items, brush and other discards placed at the curbside. Each residence is limited to 300 pounds each of concrete and scrap metal, and two major appliances.

No debris of any kind may be brought in from outside of town for pickup by Cleanup crews.

For more information about the Spring Cleanup, call the Public Works Department, 938-8000 ext. 241.

Summer Laborers

Summer laborers are needed by the Parks and Recreation and the Public Works Departments to assist their regular crews. Jobs will begin approximately June 1 at a salary of $4.25 per hour. Apply by May 17 to the Management Services Office at Town Hall. For more information, call 938-8000 ext. 224.

June Budget Hearing Scheduled

A public hearing on the proposed Town budget for fiscal year 1985-86 will be held at the June 3 Town Council meeting, which begins at 8 p.m. at Town Hall.

At the hearing, citizens will have the opportunity to comment and ask questions about the entire budget and the expenditure of all Town funds for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Copies of the proposed budget will be available for public inspection in the Management Services Office at Town Hall beginning May 13.

Captains Higgs and Williams

Police Reorganization

Chief of Police Donald Harper has completed the first phase of his department's reorganization, the division of operational and administrative responsibilities. Phase two will include formation of a traffic unit and should be completed by fall.

The Operations Division is commanded by Capt. Richard Williams, a 24-year veteran of the department who was named Vienna Policeman of the Year in 1984. This division includes patrol, traffic, criminal investigations, animal warden, and internal affairs sections.

The Support Services Division, including communications, records, property, identification, training, budgeting and equipment, is commanded by Capt. Joseph Higgs. A retired Fairfax County police officer, Capt. Higgs was most recently an instructor at the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center in Georgia.

Town Issues Bond Notes

On April 11, the Town of Vienna issued $2.5 million in public improvement bond anticipation notes. The Town received Moody's highest rating on these notes.

Nine of the country's most prestigious financial institutions, including Merrill Lynch and First National Bank of Chicago, bid on the notes. The low bid accepted by the Town Council was 6.11%, received from the Lynchburg firm of Scott and Stringfellow. This is a lower rate than the City of Alexandria received on a recent issue of similar size.

Vienna's bond funds will be used for additions and improvements to the water and sewer system, storm water control system, parks and other public facilities.

Thanks, Vienna!

To most Vienna residents, neighborliness is a way of life, and one of the things that make our town special. Those who have lived here for a number of years may take this for granted, but to a newcomer, a kind word and a smile can turn a strange place into a hometown. One new resident expresses the feeling this way:

"To My New Friends I've Never Met - My name is Daniel L. Cooper and I live on Windover Avenue. I come from a small rural town in West Virginia.

"Now that I have been here for a while, I want to thank all of you who have made me feel welcome and at home. Your friendly waves and 'Hi's' always make my day.

"Thanks to all of you, I have found Vienna to be a most warm and cordial place to live. I feel as if I already know all of you."

Playground Projects:

Louise Archer/Vienna Elementary

The Louise Archer and Vienna Elementary creative playgrounds will be built Thursday through Sunday, May 9-12, rain or shine. A total of 2,400 skilled and unskilled builders, babysitters and food servers are needed. To sign up for a job and for more information, call Becky Allen, 255-2243 (Louise Archer), or Mary Lou McIntire, 938-4276 (Vienna Elementary).

Cunningham Park School

The Cunningham Park School PTA plans to build a $32,000 community playground by next fall. To help raise funds, a Goods and Services Auction will be held at the school May 11 at 6:30 p.m. Items to be auctioned include theater tickets, hot air balloon rides, maid service, dinners, sailing lessons, and celebrity items. Admission is $1, which includes a chance for door prizes. For more information, call Irene Light, 281-1536.

The second annual ViVa! Vienna! Town Festival will be held on Vienna's historic Church Street Sunday, May 26, from 12:30 to 6:30 p.m. (rain date May 27). Church Street will be closed between Lawyers Road and Mill Street, creating a pedestrian mall for the festivities.

ViVa! Vienna! '85 will feature over 200 arts and crafts vendors, local merchants and community organizations, plus live music, food, children's entertainment and other attractions.

ViVa! Vienna! is sponsored by the Greater Vienna Chamber of Commerce and the Vienna Jaycees. Proceeds go to charitable and community service projects.

Celebrate ViVa! Vienna! all week long. May 20-26 has been proclaimed ViVa! Vienna! Week by Mayor Charles

Second Annual Town Fest And Week-long Family Fun

Robinson. Local businesses will be having special sales, displays and demonstrations, and Vienna residents are invited to participate in several ViVa! Vienna! Week activities. All are free to the public.

Thursday, May 23 - Police, fire and rescue, and public works equipment will be exhibited on the Safeway and Drug Fair parking lots from 6 to 8 p.m. Community service groups will also be represented with information and displays about their programs. Come out and meet the people who work for you, the citizens of Vienna.

Friday, May 24 - "Vienna in Review," a variety show featuring local residents whose talents range from the extraordinary to the outrageous, will be presented at the Vienna Community Center from 8 to 10 p.m. Do you sing? Play a musical instrument? Do bird calls? Own a talking dog? If so, the ViVa! Vienna! talent scouts are looking for you. Any entertaining or unusual act is welcome to audition for "Vienna in Review." Tryouts will be held at the Community Center Wednesday, May 1, and Friday, May 10, from 7 to 10 p.m. A piano will be provided.

Saturday, May 25 - Sports and Fitness Day will include a non-competitive family health walk on the W&OD Trail by the Community Center. All along the trail will be displays and literature about nutrition, exercise and health care. The Vienna Parks and Recreation Department and local youth sports teams will also have special programs that day.

*****

Vienna students from first grade through high school can get the ViVa! Vienna! spirit by entering a poster/essay contest. Posters depicting "My Favorite Place in Vienna" and essays on "Why I Like Vienna" must be submitted to the Chamber of Commerce by May 15. Certificates will be awarded to the best entries, and the posters will be displayed in stores.

For more ViVa! Vienna! information, call the Chamber of Commerce, 281-1333.

Chili Cookoff Teams Forming

Vienna residents, businesses, civic and social organizations are invited to form teams and cook their favorite chili in Vienna's second annual 4th of July Spectacular Chili Cook-off, sponsored by the Optimist Club of Vienna.

The grounds of the Vienna Community Center will be the site of the cook-off during the Town's July 4th celebration. Over 30 teams are expected to compete for prizes and recognition. Spectators will be encouraged to join in the shenanigans around each team's booth while the chili is prepared, sampled and judged, and to "vote" for their favorites by depositing contributions at each booth. All proceeds will go to Optimist youth programs.

For application forms and cook-off rules, write the Optimist Club, P.O. Box 472, Vienna, VA 22180, or call cook-off chairman Bill Gratz, 281-3135.

Teen Job Bank

A summer job bank for ages 12 through 16 is now in operation at the Vienna Community Center. Youngsters may sign up for babysitting, yard work, washing cars, house cleaning and other odd jobs. Residents who have jobs to offer should call 938-8000 ext. 275 to be matched with a young worker.

Rabies Clinic

A rabies vaccination clinic for dogs and cats will be held at the Vienna Community Center on Sunday, May 19, from noon to 2 p.m. Town ordinance requires all dogs and cats over six months old to be vaccinated.

Vaccinations for animals over a year old cost $6 and are good for three years. A one-year vaccination for animals under a year old costs $4.

Good dogs are good citizens. Town ordinance prohibits dogs from running at large and requires owners to "curb" their dogs when out for a walk.
