Vienna Man Arrested on Assault and Stalking Charges

An hours-long standoff between Vienna police and a local resident ended without incident on Monday, Jan. 2, 2023 when Vienna officers, assisted by the Fairfax County Police Department, took the suspect, Nassar T. Abdelilah, 37, into custody at approximately 10 p.m. at his home on Park Terrace Court, S.E. near Park Street. Vienna police responded to several calls about disorderly conduct at the residence throughout the day and obtained warrants for his arrest.

“Officers observed him throwing things off his balcony and threatening others,” said Vienna Police Chief Jim Morris. “Mr. Abdelilah locked himself in his home, did not answer telephone calls from police, and Vienna officers attempted to communicate with him verbally through his front door to serve the warrants. When those attempts were unsuccessful, Vienna police contacted the Fairfax County Police Department for assistance. We are appreciative of the County’s support to bring the situation to an end without incident.”

Abdelilah now faces five misdemeanor assault charges in Vienna and one felony stalking charge related to an outstanding warrant in a neighboring jurisdiction. Abdelilah is being held without bond at the Fairfax County Detention Center pending his arraignment.
