Films Help Fight Child Abuse

The Vienna Police Department has purchased three audio-visual films to assist the department in its fight against child abuse. The programs are available free of charge to schools, civic associations, churches and other community groups.

As an overview of the child abuse problem, "The Silent Epidemic" explains the types of child abuse, how to recognize abuse and how to report it.

In "The Power Kit," a brother and sister meet the Powertime Kids and learn how to stay safe from abduction and molestation.

Preventing sexual abuse of youngsters is the goal of "Speaking Out," in which a school newspaper reporter uncovers sexual abuse of students and encourages them to speak out.

For additional information, or to schedule a free showing of any of these films, contact Chief Don Harper at 938-4900.

Cleanup Finale

The Fall Cleanup will begin in northeast Vienna on Tuesday, November 5. This is the final quadrant of town on the Cleanup route. For information on Cleanup regulations, please call the Department of Public Works at 938-8000 ext. 241.

Town Hall will be closed Thursday and Friday, November 28 and 29, for the Thanksgiving holiday.

NO TRASH PICKUP.

Town Hall will be open and trash collected as usual on Veterans Day, November 11.

Rabies Clinic

A rabies vaccination clinic for dogs and cats will be held at the Vienna Community Center on Sunday, November 10, from 12 noon to 2 p.m. Town ordinance requires all dogs and cats over six months old to be vaccinated.

Vaccine for animals over a year old costs $6 and gives protection from rabies for three years. Vaccine for animals under a year old costs $4 and protects for one year. Certificates will be given to pet owners at the clinic to verify each vaccination.

In bringing animals to the clinic, dogs should be on a leash and cats confined to a box or basket.

1986 Town of Vienna dog licenses will be sold at the clinic for $5 each.

TOWN COUNCIL ACTION

September 30, 1985

- Presented Councilman Fisher with a service award for his years on the Planning Commission before his election to Council.
- Conducted a public hearing on a request to remove the properties at 224 Walnut La. and 222 Lovers La., N.W., from the Windover Heights Historic District. A decision on the matter is scheduled for the November 4 Council meeting.
- Approved the installation of a four-way stop at John Marshall Drive and McKinley Street, N.E.
- Adopted a resolution to start work on the Town's 1990 Centennial celebration.
- Authorized improvements to the Town's water system in fire flow pressure, flow characteristics and monitoring of storage tanks. The cost is not to exceed $181,000, to come from bond funds.
- Approved funds not to exceed $350 for the Planning Commission chairman to attend a conference.
- Accepted Lawrence King's resignation from the Planning Commission and expressed appreciation for his years of service.
- Reappointed Stuart Liss as the architect member on the Board of Architectural Review for a one-year term.
- Rescinded a previous action limiting the number of terms a person may serve on Town boards and commissions. Effective immediately, all appointments or reappointments, except for the Board of Zoning Appeals, will be for two-year terms, with no limit on the number of terms a person may serve. Persons seeking reappointment are subject to interview by Council.
- Approved a civilian position in the Police Department to oversee the computerization of records. The cost is not to exceed $30,495, from budgeted funds. This is not an increase in personnel but a reclassification.
- Approved a clerk-typist position, pay grade 5, for the Public Works Department and deleted the vacant garage attendant position from the current budget.

October 7, 1985

- Took no action on a request to waive the parking requirement for the professional building at 133 Maple Ave., E., and directed the matter to the Board of Zoning Appeals.
- Approved renewal of the agreement between the Town of Vienna, the Northern Virginia Regional Park Authority and the Northern Virginia Model Railroaders for use of the railroad station building.
- Approved the construction of restrooms and a concession stand at Glyndon Park at a cost of $28,500 and repairs to fencing and ballfields at Southside Park at a cost of $10,000, to come from bond funds. Approval of improvements to Meadow Lane Park was deferred pending recommendations from the Chief of Police.
- Accepted a bid of $5,688 by Wilbar Truck Equipment and a bid of $25,685.56 by District International Trucks, Tuxedo, Md., for a two-ton dump truck body and cab and chassis for the Public Works Department, subject to Council approval of an interest rate.
- Accepted a bid of $28,500 by Havenhurst, Alexandria, Va., for design and construction of the restroom and concession building at Glyndon Park, from bond and insurance funds.
- Accepted the bid by American Uniform Sales, Alexandria, Va., for police uniforms.
- Accepted a bid of $10,999 by JKJ Chevrolet for a dump truck cab and chassis and a bid of $3,127 by Wilbar Truck Equipment for a dump truck body for the Parks and Recreation Department, from budgeted funds.
- Set November 11 as the date for a work session on "Planning for Tomorrow," the final report of the Citizen Advisory Panel on Redevelopment of Commercial Zones.

Wildlife Watercolors on Display

B.J. Opfer, a member of the Vienna Arts Society, will have a one-man show entitled "Wildlife in Watercolors" at Town Hall November 18-January 6. Opfer specializes in song birds and waterfowl.

VVFD Fall Bazaar

The Vienna Volunteer Fire Department Ladies' Auxiliary will hold its Fall Bazaar at the fire station, 400 Center St., S., on Saturday, November 9, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

There will be a white elephant table, ceramics, miniatures, handmade chocolates, stitchery and crochet, painted crocks and kegs, and many other hand-crafts. The Ladies' Auxiliary will sponsor a baked goods table and serve lunch from the kitchen.

Admission is free and all proceeds from the kitchen and bake table benefit the Fire Department.

Sweet Adelines

The award-winning Vienna-Falls Sweet Adelines will present There's No Place Like - "Dixie?" at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, November 22 and 23, at T.C. Williams High School in Alexandria. The show will feature the Ginger n' Jazz Quartet. For ticket information, call Marilyn Costanzo at 941-1217.

The Sweet Adelines' "Game of Vienna," a monopoly-style board game featuring Vienna businesses, will be on sale for $12 until November 16 (afterward, price returns to $15). Proceeds will go toward competition expenses for the Vienna-Falls Chapter at the 1986 Sweet Adelines, Inc., international competition in Philadelphia. To obtain a game, call Maggie Kause at 281-2110.

Awards for Youth

The Optimist Club of Vienna's "Youth Awards for Excellence" program will be held at 8:30 p.m. November 26 at James Madison High School. Awards will be presented to 10th and 11th graders from Madison, Oakton and Marshall High Schools in academics, citizenship, fine arts, sports and vocational education.

For more information, call William Brown, Vice President for Youth Activities, 938-1684.

Parks and Recreation News

For more information on any of the activities listed below, call the Vienna Parks and Recreation Department, 938-8000 ext. 277.

Books Come Alive for Kids

Library Theatre will present "Books Alive," a School's Out Special at the Vienna Community Center on Monday, November 4, at 2 p.m.

The 50-minute production, most suitable for children in grades K-6, will feature "Hansel and Gretel" and "The Golden Goose" by the Brothers Grimm, the Indian story of "Coyote and the Crying Song," and a Russian folk tale about "Mr. Samson Cat."

Admission at the door is $2.50. Children under three will be admitted free.

Charlestown Raceway Trip

November 4 is the registration deadline for a trip to Charlestown Raceway. Charter buses will leave the Community Center on Saturday, November 9, at 5 p.m. and return at midnight.

Road Bond Referendum Nov. 5

A road bond referendum question proposing the issuance of $135 million in Fairfax County general obligation bonds will be on the November 5 general election ballot. The bond referendum includes the recommendation to begin construction of two segments of the Springfield Bypass.

One segment of the Bypass, from the Dulles Toll Road to Route 50, would provide added cross-county capacity and a major new access to I-66. The second segment would provide a new east-west connection across I-95 as an alternative to Old Keene Mill Road/Franconia Road and an additional access point into the HOV lanes. The total estimated cost for these two segments is $89.575 million.

The cost of $26 per person includes transportation, admission, racing form, prime rib dinner and chance for a door prize. A $5 non-refundable deposit is due on registration and the remainder by November 4.

Auditions for 'Fools'

The Vienna Theatre Company will hold auditions for Neil Simon's play "Fools" on Thursday, November 21, from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Community Center. Adult male and female actors are needed. Call Vienna Parks and Recreation for an appointment.

"Fools" is scheduled for presentation at the Community Center January 17-19 and 24-26.

Ayr Hill Players

"The Pleasure of His Company" by Samuel Taylor will be performed by the Ayr Hill Players November 15-16 and 22-23 at 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of Vienna Presbyterian Church, 124 Park St., N.E. A donation of $3 is suggested. For more information, call 938-0643.

FEEDER BUS ROUTE SURVEY

The Vienna Town Government is participating with the Washington Metropolitan Area Transit Authority (WMATA), the Northern Virginia Transportation Commission (NVTC), and the Fairfax County Office of Transportation in planning feeder bus routes to serve the Vienna and Dunn Loring Metrorail Stations. The Vienna Town Council considers it imperative that the citizens of the Town be provided with convenient and efficient bus service to and from the Stations.

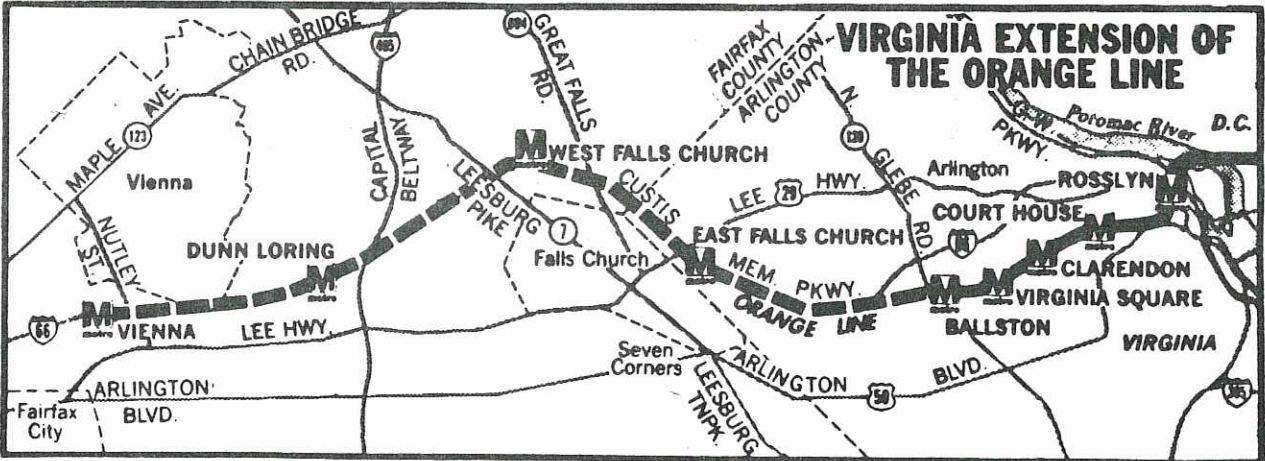

To assist in planning these bus routes, we need answers to the questions on the following page. If you plan to use Metrorail for commuting to work when the Vienna and Dunn Loring Stations open in July 1986, please complete and return the Survey by November 30. You may either mail or drop it by at Town Hall.
