Town Hall will be closed on Monday, May 29, for Memorial Day. Trash will be collected as usual for residents on the Monday/Thursday route.

No Cleanup This Spring

Residents are reminded that instead of a Spring Cleanup this year, the Town has instituted a Special Pickup program to dispose of unwanted furniture, building materials, appliances, brush and other debris not included in the regular trash collection.

To order a Special Pickup, place discards at the curbside first, then call the Special Pickup Line at 255-5727. Orders are handled on a first-come, first-served basis.

Each residence is allowed two free Special Pickups per year. For Special Pickup guidelines, consult the information section at the front of the 1989 Town Calendar, or call the Public Works Department at 255-6382.

Public Hearing May 22 on Budget

A public hearing on the proposed Town budget for fiscal year 1989-90 will be held at the May 22 Town Council meeting, which begins at 8 p.m. at Town Hall. At the hearing, citizens will have the opportunity to comment and ask questions about the budget and the appropriation of all Town funds for the fiscal year beginning July 1. Copies of the proposed budget are available for public review in the Human Resources Office at Town Hall.

TOWN COUNCIL ACTION

MARCH 6, 1989

- Waived the masonry wall for 301-305 Maple Ave., W., in connection with conversion of the property to a condominium, subject to erection within six months of a six-foot board-on-board fence for the full length of the line between this property and the adjacent residential property.

- Approved installation of a three-way stop at Echols and Berry Streets, S.E., for a 60-day trial period.

- Approved Town participation in Phase I of the Washington Council of Governments' study on health insurance programs at a total cost of approximately $1,000.

- Approved a one-year contract with the Law Enforcement Television Network to provide law enforcement training programs to the Town at a cost of $388 per month.

- Approved the Northern Virginia Solid Waste Management Program Memorandum of Agreement and funding of $1,000 for developing a solid waste disposal program.

- Reappointed Jack Stevens and Frederick

Skaer to the Transportation Safety Commission, and Marshall Potter and Jerry Barnett to the Planning Commission, all for two-year terms.

MARCH 20, 1989

- Granted an easement to C&P Telephone Co. to install an electronics cabinet at Glyndon Park, contingent on an agreement that C&P will not place above-ground equipment on Cynthia Lane for 10 years.

- Approved a site plan modification for Emmaus United Church of Christ, 900 Maple Ave., E., conditioned on the church obtaining a storm drainage easement from Westwood Country Club and making necessary revisions to the water line.

- Denied a request to remove the "No U Turn" sign at Route 123 and St. Andrews Drive.

- Approved no parking on the west side of East Street between Maple Avenue and Church Street from 6:30 to 9 a.m.

- Awarded a bid for rehabilitation of the Wall Street water storage tank to Southern Corrosion at a price of $47,590.

- Rejected all bids for painting of traffic signal poles and control cabinets along Maple Avenue. Authorized the Town Manager to negotiate a contract for the job at a cost not to exceed $20,700.

- Recommended the following names to the Fairfax County Electoral Board to serve as election officials for the May 2 Town election: Chief Election Officer, Regina Jordan; Assistant Chief, Corrine S. Hanna; Election Officers, Jacqueline Clark, Joanne Cook, Virginia Dalton, Louis M. James, Jay J. Kahn, Blanche McGarrh, Elfrieda Morrison, Arnold D. Perko, Joanne Scott, Robert V. Hancock, Mary R. Harris, Charles H. Perkins, Lewis Robeson, Nancy Robeson, Lorraine Tate and Mary E. Thompson. The Chief Election Official will be paid $100, the Assistant Chief $85, and Election Officers $75 each.

- Made appointments of Council members to Virginia Municipal League Policy Committees.

Permit Required

Citizens are reminded that a building permit is required for home improvements such as a new roof or siding, building addition or fence. Make sure that you or your contractor obtain a building permit before the work starts. Construction begun without a permit may be stopped, causing costly delays; you may be fined for each day the violation continues; and you may be required to remove the work already done if it fails to meet building code requirements.

By obtaining a building permit as your first step in a home improvement project, you will help prevent faulty construction and building code violations. For information, call the Department of Planning and Zoning at 255-6341.

Police to Run for Special Olympics

Members of the Vienna Police Department will participate in the 1989 Special Olympics Law Enforcement Torch Run for Virginia on June 1 and 2. Officers will begin the run at the Iwo Jima Memorial and carry the Special Olympics torch to Richmond for the opening of Virginia's Special Olympics Summer Games.

The goal of this year's torch run is to raise $125,000 for

Community Service Night Part of Town Festival

Get a close-up look at police cars and motorcycles, fire engines, heavy equipment, ambulances and the people who operate them at "Community Service Night" on Thursday, May 25, from 6 to 8 p.m. in the Maple Avenue Shopping Center parking lot, corner of Maple Avenue and Branch Road.

This salute to the special people who work for the citizens of Vienna will also include information and displays on volunteer community organizations ranging from garden clubs to performing arts groups to men's and women's service clubs.

Community Service Night is sponsored by the Greater Vienna Chamber of Commerce as part of its 6th annual Town Festival, ViVa! Vienna! '89. For more information, call the Chamber office at 281-1333.

Arts Group Is 20

The Vienna Arts Society is 20 years old this month. Organized by nine local artists to share their interests, enrich their experience in art, and make a creative contribution to the community, it is now one of the largest art organizations in the area with over 215 members.

VAS invites the public to its 20th anniversary celebration on Thursday, May 11, at 8 p.m. at the Vienna Community Center. Refreshments will be served, and nationally known artist Margaret Hicks will present a program on miniature painting.

REAL ESTATE REMINDER

A real estate sign may not exceed six square feet in size and may be placed only on the property to be sold or rented. Advertising and directional signs in any other location are illegal and may be confiscated by the Town.

Chautauqua to Spotlight Vienna Organizations

The Vienna area has more than 60 organizations that meet just about every special interest, including numerous hobbies and many, many charitable causes.

Community organizations have played an important role in the history of our town, and the Vienna Centennial Committee plans to salute them at a Chautauqua May 11-13, 1990, at the Vienna Community Center.

The Chautauqua will include historical displays and information about current programs sponsored by Vienna community organizations. There will be concerts, plays, speakers of note, food and much more.

All Vienna area organizations are invited to participate in the Centennial Chautauqua and let the community learn more about your activities. If your organization would like to be part of the Chautauqua, please plan to have a representative attend a planning session at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, May 24, at the Vienna Community Center. For more information, call Florence Roseborough, 281-2498; Tom Comi, 281-4575; Tom Cayton, 281-2868; or Bob Laubis, 938-3426.

piling a calendar of Centennial activities to be distributed to all Vienna mailing addresses both within and outside the town limits. If your organization is planning a special event for 1990 to help commemorate Vienna's 100th year, please send a notice on organization letterhead to the Public Information Office at Town Hall before September 1 to be listed in the Centennial calendar.

Information should include a brief description of the event, date, time, place, and a person to call for more information.

The Centennial Committee thanks the Vienna Pigtail-Ponytail Girls' Softball League for its generous donation to the Centennial celebration.

WORLD WAR II: Reality & Remembrance

Film Series
At Patrick
Henry Library

As part of the "World War II: Reality and Remembrance" series, Patrick Henry Library will host four free films beginning Tuesday, May 2, at 10:30 a.m., with the 1957 film, "The Enemy Below." Produced by Dick Powell, the film stars Robert Mitchum. Smithsonian Institution scholar and historian Scott Ellsworth will present an introduction to this and other films in the series.

On Tuesday, May 9, at 10:30 a.m., Ellsworth will present "Command Decision," directed by Sam Wood, starring Clark Gable and Walter Pidgeon. The film depicts realities of war and the difficulties of leadership.

Stanley Kramer's production of "The Men," starring Marlon Brando, will be offered on Tuesday, May 16, at 10:30 a.m. The film portrays a wounded veteran who must cope with rehabilitation in a VA hospital.

The last film in the series, "Since You Went Away," is offered on Tuesday, May 23, at 10:30 a.m. Produced by David O. Selznick in 1944, the film stars Claudette Colbert and Jennifer Jones. The film deals with the home front during the war, depicting the lives of a family and the changes faced by women at home.

The "World War II: War and Remembrance" series is funded by a grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities. To register for the film series and for more information, call the library at 938-0405.

Give the Needy Old Glasses, Hearing Aids

Collection of eyeglasses and hearing aids is an ongoing project of the Vienna Lioness Club. Collection boxes are located at the Vienna Community Center and Patrick Henry Library. These donations go worldwide to needy people with limited vision and hearing.

Contributions are recognized by the Treasury Department as allowable tax deductions, the value to be set by the donor. For those wishing acknowledgement of your donation, leave your name and address with the glasses/hearing aids being donated. For more information, call Virginia Casey, 938-7693.

Rabies Clinic

A low-cost rabies vaccination clinic for dogs and cats will be held at the Fairfax County Animal Shelter, 4500 W. Ox Rd., on Sunday, May 21, from noon to 2 p.m. The cost is $4 for one-year shots and $6 for three-year shots.

In bringing pets to the clinic, dogs must be on a leash and cats confined in a carrier, box or towel. For more information, call the animal shelter at 830-1100.

Dog owners are reminded that all dogs must be on a leash when off the owner's property. This includes bike paths, parks and school grounds.

School Fun Fair

Carnival games, a moon bounce, flower sale, used book sale, and a variety of children's activities will be featured at Green Hedges School's annual Fun Fair, sponsored by the Green Hedges Parents Organization. The fair will be held on Saturday, May 13, from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the school, 415 Windover Ave., N.W.

This year's fair will include three children's shows: Dinosaur Show, 10:30 a.m.; Cinderella, 11:30 a.m.; and Magician Show, 1 p.m. For more information, call 255-5463.
