Kerr Appointed New Chief of Police

Town Manager John H. Schoeberlein has appointed Daniel J. Kerr, Jr., as Chief of the Vienna Police Department. Kerr, a 20-year member of the Fairfax County Police Department, will assume his new duties this month on his retirement from the County.

Kerr was selected from a field of 55 applicants. He currently holds the rank of Major with the County police and is Commander of the Operations Support Bureau. As Vienna's Chief of Police, he will receive a starting salary of $59,091 per year and have the rank of Colonel.

Kerr holds an associate degree in police science from Northern Virginia Community College and a bachelor's degree in administration of justice from American University. In addition, he graduated from the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy in 1990.

Married with two children, Kerr resides in Fairfax County.

Col. Donald G. Harper, Vienna's Police Chief since 1984, recently accepted the position of Chief of Police in Harrisonburg, Virginia.

Car Tag Deadline

1992 Town vehicle decals will be sold in the Finance Department at Town Hall on the following dates:

- Weekdays through April 10, 8:15 a.m. - 4:45 p.m.;
- Saturday, April 11, 8 a.m.- 1 p.m.; and
- Tuesday and Wednesday, April 14 and 15, 8:15 a.m. - 6:30 p.m.

The registration fee is $20 for passenger cars and trucks weighing under 4,000 pounds, $25 for cars and trucks 4,000 pounds and over, and $10.50 for motorcycles.

Information for pre-printed application forms for 1992 decals was taken from 1991 records; therefore, if your vehicle was not registered in Vienna last year, you will not automatically receive an application in the mail. Please call or visit Town Hall to obtain forms. (Military personnel must apply in person only.)

Decals must be displayed by midnight April 15. For more information, call 255-6323.

Town residents do not need to obtain Fairfax County vehicle decals, but are required to pay County personal property tax on motor vehicles. Personal property tax returns are available at Town Hall and must be filed with the County Office of Assessments by May 1 each year (and within 30 days after purchasing a vehicle). For information about personal property tax, call 222-8234.

Budget Deliberations Begin This Month

Copies of the Town's proposed budget for fiscal year 1992-93 will be available to the public beginning Friday, April 10, in the Human Resources Office at Town Hall.

The Town Council has scheduled the work sessions listed below to discuss the proposed budget with the Town Manager and his department heads:

- Saturday, April 11 - 9 a.m.
- Monday, April 13 - 7:30 p.m.
- Saturday, April 18 - 9 a.m. (if needed)
- Tuesday, April 21 - 7:30 p.m. (if needed)

Work sessions are informal discussions among Council members and the Town staff. No final decisions can be made until the items are considered at a regular Council meeting and the public invited to comment.

A public hearing on the budget will be held at the regular Council meeting on Monday, May 18, at 8 p.m., with another work session scheduled for 9 a.m. Saturday, May 30, if needed. Adoption is scheduled for the June 1 meeting.

About the Meals Tax . . .

On April 7, voters will decide whether a meals tax may be levied in Fairfax County. Some citizens have asked if this tax would apply to restaurant bills in Vienna. The answer is no; only the 3% Vienna meals tax would be charged in town.

Vienna Police Solve Holiday Vandalism

Vienna Police charged two juveniles with vandalism in connection with over 30 incidents reported in southeast Vienna over the Christmas holidays.

The two boys are both Vienna residents. In a related arrest, police charged a Hillcrest Drive man with obstruction of justice in the case.

The vandalism to homes, vehicles and mailboxes occurred on about a dozen streets in the southeast quadrant of town December 21, 24, 25 and 28.

Damage was estimated at about $6,000.

Members of the Police Department's Criminal Investigations Bureau who solved the case are Lt. John Cheyne, Officers Virginia Palmore and William Murray, and Officer First Class Joseph Boudreau.

The Police Department's annual report for 1991 has just been published. Copies are available in the Public Information Office at Town Hall.

Dogs Prohibited in Certain Park Areas

The Vienna Parks and Recreation Department has posted signs in several Town parks to remind pet owners that dogs are not allowed on athletic fields, tennis and basketball courts, playgrounds and picnic areas. The Town Animal Warden is authorized to fine pet owners found in violation of the law.

When owners allow their dogs to defecate in these areas, it creates a nuisance and a potential health hazard for park users and maintenance personnel.

Dogs may be walked on a leash outside the restricted areas, and also in the Town's stream valley parks and in undeveloped parks such as Northside, Moorefield and Beulah Road. Dogs are also permitted on the W&OD Trail as long as they are kept on a short leash to keep them from crossing in front of bikers or pedestrians.

Is Your Dog a Good Neighbor?

Please be a responsible pet owner and don't allow your dog to foul the lawns of neighbors. The smell is very offensive, especially in warm weather. And remember, dogs must be kept on a leash. Owners charged with dog-at-large violations must appear in court. Fines increase with each offense to a maximum of $500.

Meadowlark Gardens Arbor Day Gala

Vienna's own Ayr Hill Garden Club will help usher in spring with a standard flower show in the visitor center at Meadowlark Gardens Regional Park on Arbor Day, Saturday, April 25. Following judging, the show will be open to the public from 1 to 4:30 p.m.

Arbor Day festivities at the park will also feature educational materials and exhibits plus activities for children and adults such as tree planting, tree pruning, mulching and composting. Project Learning Tree, a hands-on educational program for children, will be there, and informational sessions for adults will be given on working with the Green Industry.

Special guests have been invited to celebrate Arbor Day, including Neil Sampson of the American Forestry Association, Harden and Weaver from WMAL radio, Smokey Bear and Woodsy Owl.

The celebration is sponsored by the Fairfax County Arbor Day Committee and Fairfax ReLeaf. For more information, call 934-5189.

Other activities scheduled this month at Meadowlark Gardens are a tree-pruning workshop at 10 a.m. Saturday, April 4, and the grand opening of the visitor center on Saturday, April 11. The park is located at 9750 Meadowlark Gardens Ct. off Beulah Road near Route 7 and the Dulles Access Road. For information about park programs, call 255-3631.

'Twas the Season to Tree-Cycle

According to a survey of local governments conducted by the Northern Virginia Planning District Commission (NVPDC), over 100,000 Christmas trees were collected for recycling during the holiday season. Laid end to end, the trees recycled in Fairfax County alone would stretch to Richmond over 90 miles away.

In Vienna, where curbside pickup of Christmas trees is provided, recycling approached 100%. The trees were ground into mulch and delivered to town residents who requested it. Elsewhere in Fairfax County, where many citizens themselves must haul Christmas trees to a collection site, recycling was approximately 66%, a threefold increase over the last holiday season.

NVPDC estimates that almost 4,000 cubic yards of landfill space were saved by this recycling program.

Dispose of Hazardous Waste Safely

One of the Town's Public Works employees recently was burned by an unknown chemical that had been included in a special trash pickup. Citizens are reminded that hazardous household materials such as oil-based paints, varnishes, pesticides, herbicides, cleaners and lawn chemicals must be disposed of properly to protect both people and the environment.

The Fairfax County Fire and Rescue Department operates a hazardous waste program with collection points and times for citizens to drop off dangerous, polluting chemicals. For information, call 246-3937 or 246-2852.

Town of Vienna businesses are encouraged to bid on these and other items. For information and to place your business on the Town bidders' list, call the Purchasing Office at 255-6359.

Meet the Town Council Candidates

The Town of Vienna holds elections the first Tuesday in May each year for three Town Council seats, with the office of Mayor appearing on the ballot in even-numbered years. Town elections are non-partisan, and all Council members are elected at large.

This year, Mayor Charles A. Robinson, Jr., Councilman George E. Lovelace and Councilwoman Martha H. Pruett are seeking reelection, while Councilman Albert J. Boudreau is seeking a first elected term after being appointed last December to fill the vacancy created when Robert B. Dix, Jr., left the Council to take office as Centreville District Supervisor. Council members will begin new two-year terms on July 1.

All registered voters in the Town of Vienna are eligible to vote in Town elections. The last day to register is Saturday, April 4. Special voter registration will be conducted that day only at Patrick Henry Library from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. To register, you must be a Vienna resident at least 18 years old by election day and a U.S. citizen.

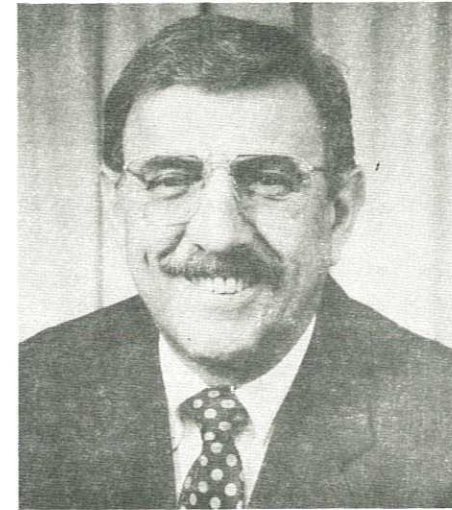

For voter information, call the Fairfax County General Registrar's Office at 591-8523 or the 24-hour information number, 246-VOTE. For election results, call the Vienna Newsline, 255-6333, one to two hours after the polls close.

CHARLES A. ROBINSON, JR., was first elected Mayor in 1976, following 20 years as a Board of Zoning Appeals member, Planning Commissioner and Town Councilman. He serves on a number of state and regional groups, including Virginia Municipal League committees and the Tysons Task Force. Locally, he belongs to many Vienna organizations. Mayor Robinson is an attorney in Vienna. He and his wife Maud have lived in Vienna 41 years at 124 Courthouse Rd., S.W.

"As I travel about Northern Virginia, people go out of their way to tell me, 'Vienna is one of the very few places that has preserved a small-town environment, a strong community spirit, and accessibility to elected officials.' These comments always make me feel good, because beyond good services and sound financial management, which are mandatory, local government can and should encourage and support the individual residents and business people and the volunteer community organizations whose work and programs make a great community like Vienna out of what otherwise might be just another collection of buildings. I pledge my continued effort to preserve this almost unique kind of town.

"I am a true believer in Vienna's low-density land use policy, vigorous law enforcement, infrastructure reconstruction, and the preservation of what little open space remains. We will also do our very best on traffic control, but Vienna cannot alone fully solve that problem."

ALBERT J. BOUDREAU, is a retired federal executive and now part-time consultant to the U.S. Congress. He lives at 616 Welles St., S.E., and was unanimously appointed to the Town Council in December.

"My wife Alice and I have lived in Vienna for 35 years. We came here because of the small-town residential character existing in harmony with a pleasant business area. Although it has grown since we first settled here, Vienna is still a nice place in which to live and raise a family.

"Over the years, I have participated in numerous community activities, including nearly four years on the Town/Business Liaison Committee prior to Town Council. I am currently a volunteer tutor for the hearing impaired. With increased time available, I would like to repay the town more fully for the splendid 'quality of life' we have enjoyed here.

"There are still many challenges ahead for Vienna. Some of these are capital improvements such as upgraded sewer/water facilities, sidewalks, etc.; beautification of the town and business community to sustain the sound financial base; resistance to higher-density zoning and development; a total recycling program; and, most important, maintaining Town services without tax increases.

"I believe that with my years of experience in government, and my training and education in engineering, business and public administration, I can help Vienna meet the challenges of the future."

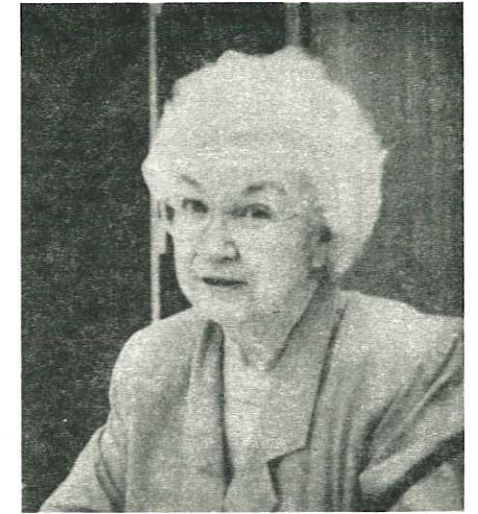

GEORGE E. LOVELACE has served on Council since 1982 and is a former member of both the Town and County Planning Commissions. He is a telecommunications engineer with the General Services Administration. A town resident for 17 years, Councilman Lovelace belongs to a number of community organizations and lives with his family at 425 West St., N.W.

"The next two years offer the opportunity for further advancement and achievement for Vienna. Projects now underway or in the planning stages include the reconstruction of Park Street, revitalization of the Church Street business corridor, upgrading of our infrastructure, and an expanded recycling program. Our policy of fiscal constraint will permit us to weather the economic climate in the face of reduced residential and commercial property tax assessments.

"The civic associations representing our neighborhoods and the Greater Vienna Chamber of Commerce representing our businesses promote a spirit of public awareness. We are blessed with a truly outstanding community of people who freely give of their time and talents to work on committees, support youth recreation activities, participate in service and charitable projects, and lift our spirits through the arts.

"Our course of slow growth is well established. By staying alert and willing to be counted, we will continue to be successful in protecting the town's residential character and ensuring the quality of life we enjoy today."

MARTHA H. PRUETT served on the Planning Commission 17 years before her election to Council in 1988. She is a member of several service organizations, and her work with the County schools earned her the Virginia Congress of PTA's Volunteer Service Award. A 41-year Vienna resident, Councilwoman Pruett and her family live at 514 Kibler Cir., S.W.

"I believe there are many factors that have contributed to making Vienna such a desirable place in which to live. Our long-time policy of limited growth and low density has ensured the small-town quality that is so attractive.

"Our many citizen volunteers have had a lot to do with the community spirit so apparent in this town. It has built and sustained our great youth sports programs and provided us with board and commission members who bolster the town government, classroom volunteers and PTA members, garden clubs, and dozens of service organizations, each with its special goals, that have contributed immeasurably to making Vienna a very, very special place. I am proud that I have been able to contribute to the quality of life as a volunteer in Vienna for 35 years.

"During the last four years as a Council member, I have always been available to hear your concerns and try to get them resolved. I hope that all registered voters will take the time to vote and by doing so show support for the efforts of your elected officials who work hard on your behalf."

NOTICE OF ELECTION

The qualified voters of the Town of Vienna are hereby notified that an election for Mayor and 3 Members of the Town Council will be held on Tuesday, May 5, 1992.
