This Month in History

from the Vienna Newsletter archives

JUNE 1997 – Aggressive drivers beware! In response to concerns expressed by citizens during several recent “traffic calming” meetings, the Town of Vienna has intensified its enforcement against serious traffic violations, in particular, speeding, red light and stop sign violations. Chief of Police Dan Boring has implemented this program of traffic calming through enforcement as a means to curb the multitude of aggressive driving violations that occur daily as a traffic volume many times in excess of Vienna’s population flows through both the business and residential sections of town.

JUNE 1987 – Longtime resident William Moran will present a demonstration and display of his handmade stringed instruments at the Freeman House on June 14. Moran uses 100-year old wood, some of which he gathered from the Freeman House during its restoration in 1976 and from the attic of his own home on Mill Street, N.E. Some of the wood came from the old sawmills for which Mill Street was named.

JUNE 1977 – An ordinance designed to control the number of adult book stores and adult theaters allowed in Vienna was adopted by the Town Council at its June 6 meeting. Under the provisions of the ordinance, any adult book store or theater would have to be a conditional use in the C-2 commercial zone. Establishments could not be within 1,000 feet of a school or church. Vienna’s ordinance makes it nearly impossible for an adult book store or theater to locate here.

Yard Sale Reminder

Each household in town may hold two yard sales per year. No permit is required. Signs advertising yard sales may not be exhibited more than two days prior to the start of the sale and are not permitted on public property, in the public right-of-way (10 feet from the curb or edge of pavement) or on utility poles. For more information or to report violations, call the Planning and Zoning Department at 703-255-6341.

Don’t Block Driveways

The Town Code prohibits stopping, standing or parking in front of a public or private driveway. Next time you park on the street, look in front of and behind your vehicle to make sure you are not blocking someone’s driveway. Your neighbors will appreciate it!

Beulah Road Project Underway

The long-awaited reconstruction of Beulah Road, N.E., is underway. The road will be closed to northbound traffic until the completion of the project, scheduled for May 2008. Southbound traffic will be maintained. Detour signs are posted to direct motorists around the construction. For more information, visit the Virginia Department of Transportation Web site at <http://virginiadot.org/projects/const-project.asp?ID=429>. To be added to a list for updates on the Beulah Road project, send an e-mail to beulahnews@viennava.gov. Do not use this e-mail address for correspondence on the project.

Get Involved!

Membership on Vienna’s boards and commissions provides citizens the opportunity to become actively involved in Town affairs. An application for appointment is on pages 9 and 10 of this newsletter.

Recycle Motor Oil, Antifreeze, Batteries

The next quarterly recycling day for used motor oil, antifreeze and car batteries is Saturday, June 2, from 8 a.m. to 2 p.m. at Northside Property Yard, 600 Mill St., N.E. (entrance at the dead end of the street). For information, call 703-255-6381.

Public Kickoff Meeting for Traffic-calming Study

Vienna’s Transportation Safety Commission will host the public kickoff meeting for a townwide traffic-calming study at 8 p.m. Tuesday, June 26, in the Council Chamber at Town Hall. At the meeting, the firm of ATCS, P.L.C., contracted by the Town Council in January to conduct the traffic-calming study, will discuss the overall goals of the study and gather input from residents regarding their traffic concerns.

The traffic-calming study will include all streets in town, including those that already have traffic-calming measures in place, and will address traffic flow, cut-through traffic, pedestrian safety, the impact of MetroWest and other developments in the area, and other factors. The study will quantify and evaluate problems, propose solutions, and develop cost estimates. After a draft report is submitted, additional public meetings will be held before a final plan is approved by the Town Council.

Town Changes E-mail Address to a New Domain: @viennava.gov

The Town of Vienna has fully enabled a new e-mail address format using the @viennava.gov domain, for example, mayor@viennava.gov and chief@viennava.gov. You will find the new e-mail addresses for Town staff listed on the Town Web site, www.viennava.gov, under the “Mailbox” category.

When sending e-mail to the Town, keep an eye out for the new domain in the Town’s response; in some circumstances the response may end up in your spam folder/filter by mistake, and you may need to adjust your spam filter to accept Town e-mail directly into your inbox. AOL e-mail customers, in particular, may encounter this problem. For more information or assistance, contact the Town’s IT Administrator, Craig Griffin, at 703-255-6364 or e-mail cgriffin@viennava.gov.

Properties Being Photographed for Online Database

A company called Zaio (Zone Appraisal and Imaging Operations) is in the process of photographing and appraising properties in communities across the country, including the Town of Vienna. The resulting online database of images and valuations is made available to the real estate, mortgage and insurance industries. All photos are taken from a public vantage point and photographers never trespass on private property. Property owners can automatically remove their property from the database: Go to www.zaio.com, click on “Public Interest” and then click on “Remove My Property,” or call 1-800-241-4757.

Comment from the Council Table

Town Green Is for Everyone

By M. Jane Seeman
Mayor of Vienna

The Town Green — I love how that sounds. After many years in the planning and many months under construction, the Town Green has been dedicated and is open for all to use and enjoy.

The credit for making this oasis in the center of our town goes to many people. Former Mayor Charles A. Robinson, Jr., and the Council recognized a need for some green space in the center of town years ago. Two locations were considered: the corner where Urgent Medical Care is now located and the Whole Foods property. Both negotiations came to nothing.

In 1999 former Councilman Albert J. Boudreau asked the Council to consider purchasing the property on Maple Avenue at Mill Street and the W&OD Trail. The Mayor and Council moved forward and the property was acquired in July 2001. A perfect location, next to the W&OD Trail, adjoining the historic Freeman House and right in the heart of Vienna!

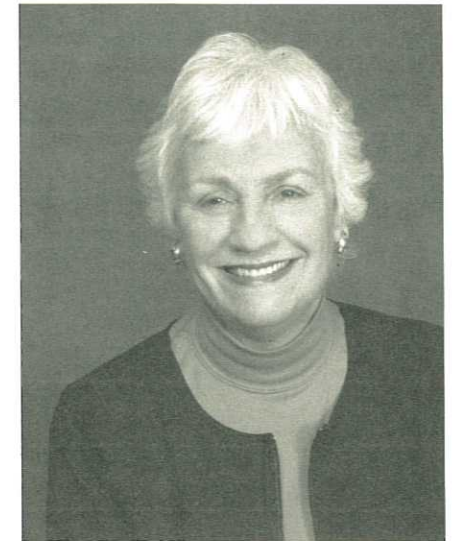

The building space was leased out for several years (with all the rental income going toward the construction of the Town Green). At last, in the summer of 2005, a design firm was selected, the building came down, and work began.

Many people had the foresight and vision for this addition to Maple Avenue: Mayor Charles A. Robinson, Jr., former Council members Steven D. Briglia, Albert J. Boudreau, Robert P. McCormick, Vincent J. Olson and Sydney H. Verinder, and current Council members Laurie Genevro Cole, Edythe Frankel Kelleher, George E. Lovelace, Michael J. Polychrones, Maud F. Robinson and Daniel M. Dellinger.

U.S. Congressman Tom Davis, State Senator Jeannemarie Devolites-Davis and State Delegate Steve Shannon were able to obtain funds to help finance the construction.

Town Manager John Schoeberlein and the Town staff were instrumental in the planning and building of the Town Green. Director of Parks and Recreation Cathy Salgado, who served as project manager, was on the job daily. She and her staff were responsible for the very successful dedication ceremony, the program entertainment, food, and goody bags everyone took home.

Mayor Seeman

The businesses in Vienna have stepped up to help make this a success by volunteering to sponsor events on the Town Green stage.

Vienna residents have helped with sponsorships and volunteer efforts.

Working together, everyone — Town staff, Town Council members, our state and national elected officials, businesses and citizens — have already made the Town Green a success. This Town Green is for everyone, not just for today's enjoyment but for tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow. This is a legacy those of us today can leave for those who follow.

Election Results

In the May 1 Town election, Town Council members Dan Dellinger, George Lovelace and Maud Robinson were re-elected for new two-year terms beginning July 1. The vote totals were as follows:

Dan Dellinger	1,655
George Lovelace	1,633
Maud Robinson	1,416
Deborah Brehony	866
Susan Stich	858

A total of 2,351 Vienna residents voted in this election out of 10,523 registered, a 22.3% voter turnout.

Thanks to all citizens who took the time to vote as well as those who served as election officers.

The fountain at the new Town Green is popular with visitors. See page 7 for "This Month on the Green" schedule of free performances for children and adults.

Real Estate Tax Due Next Month

The first installment on 2007 Town of Vienna real estate tax bills is due on July 30. Mailed payments must be postmarked on or before that date to avoid penalties and interest. For your convenience, an overnight drop box is located at the front door of Town Hall. For more information, call 703-255-6325 or e-mail mpeng@viennava.gov.

If your Vienna taxes are paid through your mortgage company and you receive the tax bill, please notify your mortgage company immediately. If you have sold the property and are not responsible for the tax bill you receive, please notify the real estate office immediately.

To pay by credit card online, go to www.viennava.gov/Town_Departments/onlinepay.htm. Business Profile: Wheat's Landscape

Mike Wheat

Wheat's Landscape, a nominee for last year's Business Community Service Award sponsored by the Town/Business Liaison Committee, has been caring for residential landscapes in Northern Virginia since 1978. Wheat's has evolved from a family lawn care service to a full-service residential landscape company.

Having grown up in the area that now supports his business, Mike Wheat is committed to improving the community through hands-on involvement in numerous charitable activities, including scholarships to promote youth volunteerism and the "Care to Help" program. Through this program, Wheat works with individuals in the community who are physically or financially unable to maintain their landscapes or who have been called overseas during wartime, by donating time and basic materials to put their landscapes back in shape.

The Town/Business Liaison Committee will be accepting nominations for the next Business Community Service Award in early 2008. The award, which recognizes businesses and business owners for outstanding contributions to the community life and spirit of Vienna, is open to any business within the town limits. For more information, call Julie Morris at 703-255-6347 or e-mail tblc@viennava.gov.

2006 Crime Statistics Reflect Trends in Fairfax County

The most notable category in the Vienna Police Department's crime statistics for 2006 is the increase in robbery cases from a total of four in 2005 to a total of twelve in 2006, eight of them bank robberies. According to Police Chief Bob Carlisle's report to the Town Council, this number of robberies is very unusual for the town but corresponds to the 126% increase in bank robberies reported by Fairfax County. "It is important to note that this increase is not in character with general crime levels in our town and is consistent with the increase we have noted in this crime category in the larger population that surrounds us," Chief Carlisle wrote.

Misdemeanor crimes decreased by 18% with significant reductions in simple assault and driving while intoxicated offenses. The general upward trend in calls for service continued with a 12% increase to 12,849 calls. Total traffic accidents remained almost flat with a 1% increase. Overall, the 2006 crime summary is "a mixed report," noted the Chief, but "for a jurisdiction of our size and proximity these numbers are indicative of a very safe community. I believe they reflect the commitment of our employees and citizens to work together to make the town a very safe place in which to live and work."

Vienna Names in the News

Community Services Officer Virginia Palmore is retiring after more than 21 years with the Vienna Police Department. She is the first female retiree. Officer Palmore is well known to many town residents for her involvement with the Neighborhood Watch program, self-defense training for women, drug awareness education in the schools, bike safety rodeos, the Cops and Kids run, and many more. Mayor Jane Seeman has proclaimed July 1 as "Virginia Palmore Day" to recognize her contributions to the town.

ViVa! Vienna! is fun for everyone. But did you know that the Vienna Rotary Club donates proceeds from the annual town festival to many community service organizations? Vienna
Named
Tree City
USA

Vienna has been named a Tree City USA community by the National Arbor Day Foundation to honor its commitment to community forestry. This is the sixth year the town has received this national recognition.

Four standards must be met to become a Tree City USA community: a tree board or department, a tree care ordinance, a comprehensive community forestry program, and an Arbor Day observance.

The Tree City USA program is sponsored by the Arbor Day Foundation in cooperation with the National Association of State Foresters and the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Forest Service.
